Before

Current
204 Pounds (28 lbs lost)

Back when I was in grade school, I was always one of the larger kids in class. All but the exception of a couple of years in high school when my height actually caught up with my girth, I was always on the bigger end of the size spectrum, and going to the extra large section of the clothing rack. My years in college proved to add more and more pounds on me, and now two years after graduating, life in the working world hasn't seemed to help the situation. Any weight that I would lose, faithfully returned like a trained and obedient pet, and it looked as if dealing with the burdens of pudginess would be a portion of my lot in life.

I was introduced to the Isagenix Cleansing and Fat-Burning system about two month's ago. I was excited to see the results in the testimonials on the website, but still wasn't completely sure that the system would work for me. Nonetheless, I was elated at the existence of such an opportunity and spent the next few days anxiously awaiting my first box of products. I lost 13 pounds and 2 inches from my waist on my first 9-day cycle (which was only 8 days, since I went to a wedding and wanted to eat) and then after my second cycle, I had lost a total of 21 pounds and 4 inches from my waist. The results are amazing!! I have gone on now to lose a total of 28 pounds, and now most of my clothes are too big for me. I guess I'll be investing my first few commission cycles in a new wardrobe - which doesn't bother me in the least !

Since I am now really close to my original target weight, I am planning to go on maintenance. It's a great feeling to know that I am in control of my weight and can lose more whenever I choose to. As I am now, I could probably lose another 15 pounds, so I'll probably finish that off sometime in the near future. The Isagenix Cleansing and Fat-Burning System has truly helped me to become more aware of my eating habits, and has taught me ways to eat great and be healthy at the same time. Isagenix - both as a weight loss and a business opportunity - has been nothing short of a tremendous blessing in my life, and I can't wait to share it with everyone I meet.
